Greetings from the president!

On behalf of the Highwood Lions Music Festival Board, I am pleased to welcome everyone to our 2026 Festival Season. We are excited and grateful to our participants, their families, teachers and our wonderful adjudicators for this year. I have had the privilege of seeing the hard work and dedication of our participants in the Foothills area. It is a joy to see past participants as well as newcomers to our festival!

The HLMF Board is a dedicated team of individuals who love the arts and have a heart for our young performers. They work hard and volunteer their time and energy because they believe in the developing musicians and artists in our midst. If you are interested in helping to set direction for the future of this festival in the Foothills, please reach out to me– we'd love to have you.

Thank you for being a part of our Festival Season and I look forward to seeing many of you in the coming weeks! Congratulations on what I already know will be a fabulous display of young artists showing their passion and love for music.

Sasha Penchuk, President, Highwood Lions Music Festival

Greetings from the Festival Director!

We are thrilled to welcome over 300 participants this year in a variety of disciplines. WE know that numbers aren't everything, but the reason these numbers are so exciting for us is that they represent people– young artists whose skills and passion for the arts will be encouraged and honed in these next few weeks.

The Highwood Lions Music Festival continues its commitment to being a teaching and mentoring festival. Our purpose is to provide a positive performance experience for each participant and alongside that, to offer a supportive learning opportunity that meets each performer where they are at and advances their already developing musical skills. We are so grateful for our expert adjudicators who make this learning environment possible.

I must also express my gratitude to our volunteers. It takes over 250 volunteer hours to help our festival run! It's so delightful to see friends and community members greet and encourage our young performers, advocate for sponsorship for our festival and support our adjudicators.

Our Festival wouldn't be possible without the generous support of our many sponsors and donors. Their financial and community support is tremendous. They help us cover the cost of operations as well as provide the resources for scholarships and awards. Special thanks to the Highwood Lions Club who have been our patron sponsor for the last many years.

Finally, I would like to offer appreciation to all those who support our young musicians. I think of the parents who encourage and make space for music to be a part of their students' lives and the teachers who spend time and energy helping the next generation of musicians in the Foothills. Thank you for choosing to support the young artist in your life.

To all our young artists, congratulations! We know you have worked hard at your craft. We believe that music brings us together, and we wish each of you every success.

With gratitude and great anticipation,

Amanda Bartel, Festival Director, Highwood Lions Music Festival
